Welsh Country Weddings

This is the start of something beautiful

.....AT EASE WITH IT'S HISTORY

Owned in early C19 by Thomas Harcourt Powell and the Rev. Thomas Powell. The house was sold to Sir Joseph Bailey mid C19 and then part of the Glanusk estate.

The house was extended in 1901

Nowaday's Peterstone remains loyal to it's Georgian heritage but compliments the old with funky details and modern touches.

Built on a site with nearly 1000 years of history.

Originally owned by John Walbeoffe (born circa 1030), a Norman and friend of William the Conqueror.

The house as we see it today was built in 1741 for a wealthy barrister John Powell who it is believed added another storey in the early C19.
