Choosing a layout

Boardroom

Best for discussion-led meetings and smaller groups working around one table.

U-shape

Useful for presentations, training and meetings where discussion and interaction are important.

Cabaret

Round tables with delegates facing the presentation area — ideal for larger meetings with group work.

Classroom

Forward-facing tables providing delegates with their own working space.

Theatre

Rows of chairs facing the presentation area, allowing the largest capacity.

Capacities are intended as comfortable working numbers and may vary depending on AV requirements, staging and the exact room layout

COME AND TAKE A LOOK

If you're planning a meeting, away day or residential retreat, the easiest way to see whether Peterstone will work for you is to come and see it for yourself.

We'll make you a coffee, show you the meeting spaces, bedrooms and grounds and talk through what you're hoping to achieve.
